

Values

Acceptance: All children are made to feel welcome, regardless of age, maturity, skill, giftedness, physical strength, family situation, nationality, or personality.

Luke 18:16: But Jesus called the children to him and said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Belief: Acknowledgement of who God is and what He did for us is the foundation of our faith.

Hebrews 12:2: Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Care: All children are valued and deserve to be protected and secure.

Psalms 91:14: "Because he loves me," says the LORD, "I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name."

Discover: Through exploration of the Bible, an active prayer life, and creative learning experiences, all children will be trained to recognize God's voice and plan for their lives.

Matthew 11:29: Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Enjoyment: Joy and fun will characterize our relationships with the children, celebrating their unique personalities and behavior.

Isaiah 3:10: Tell the righteous it will be well with them, for they will enjoy the fruit of their deeds.
